From Us To You

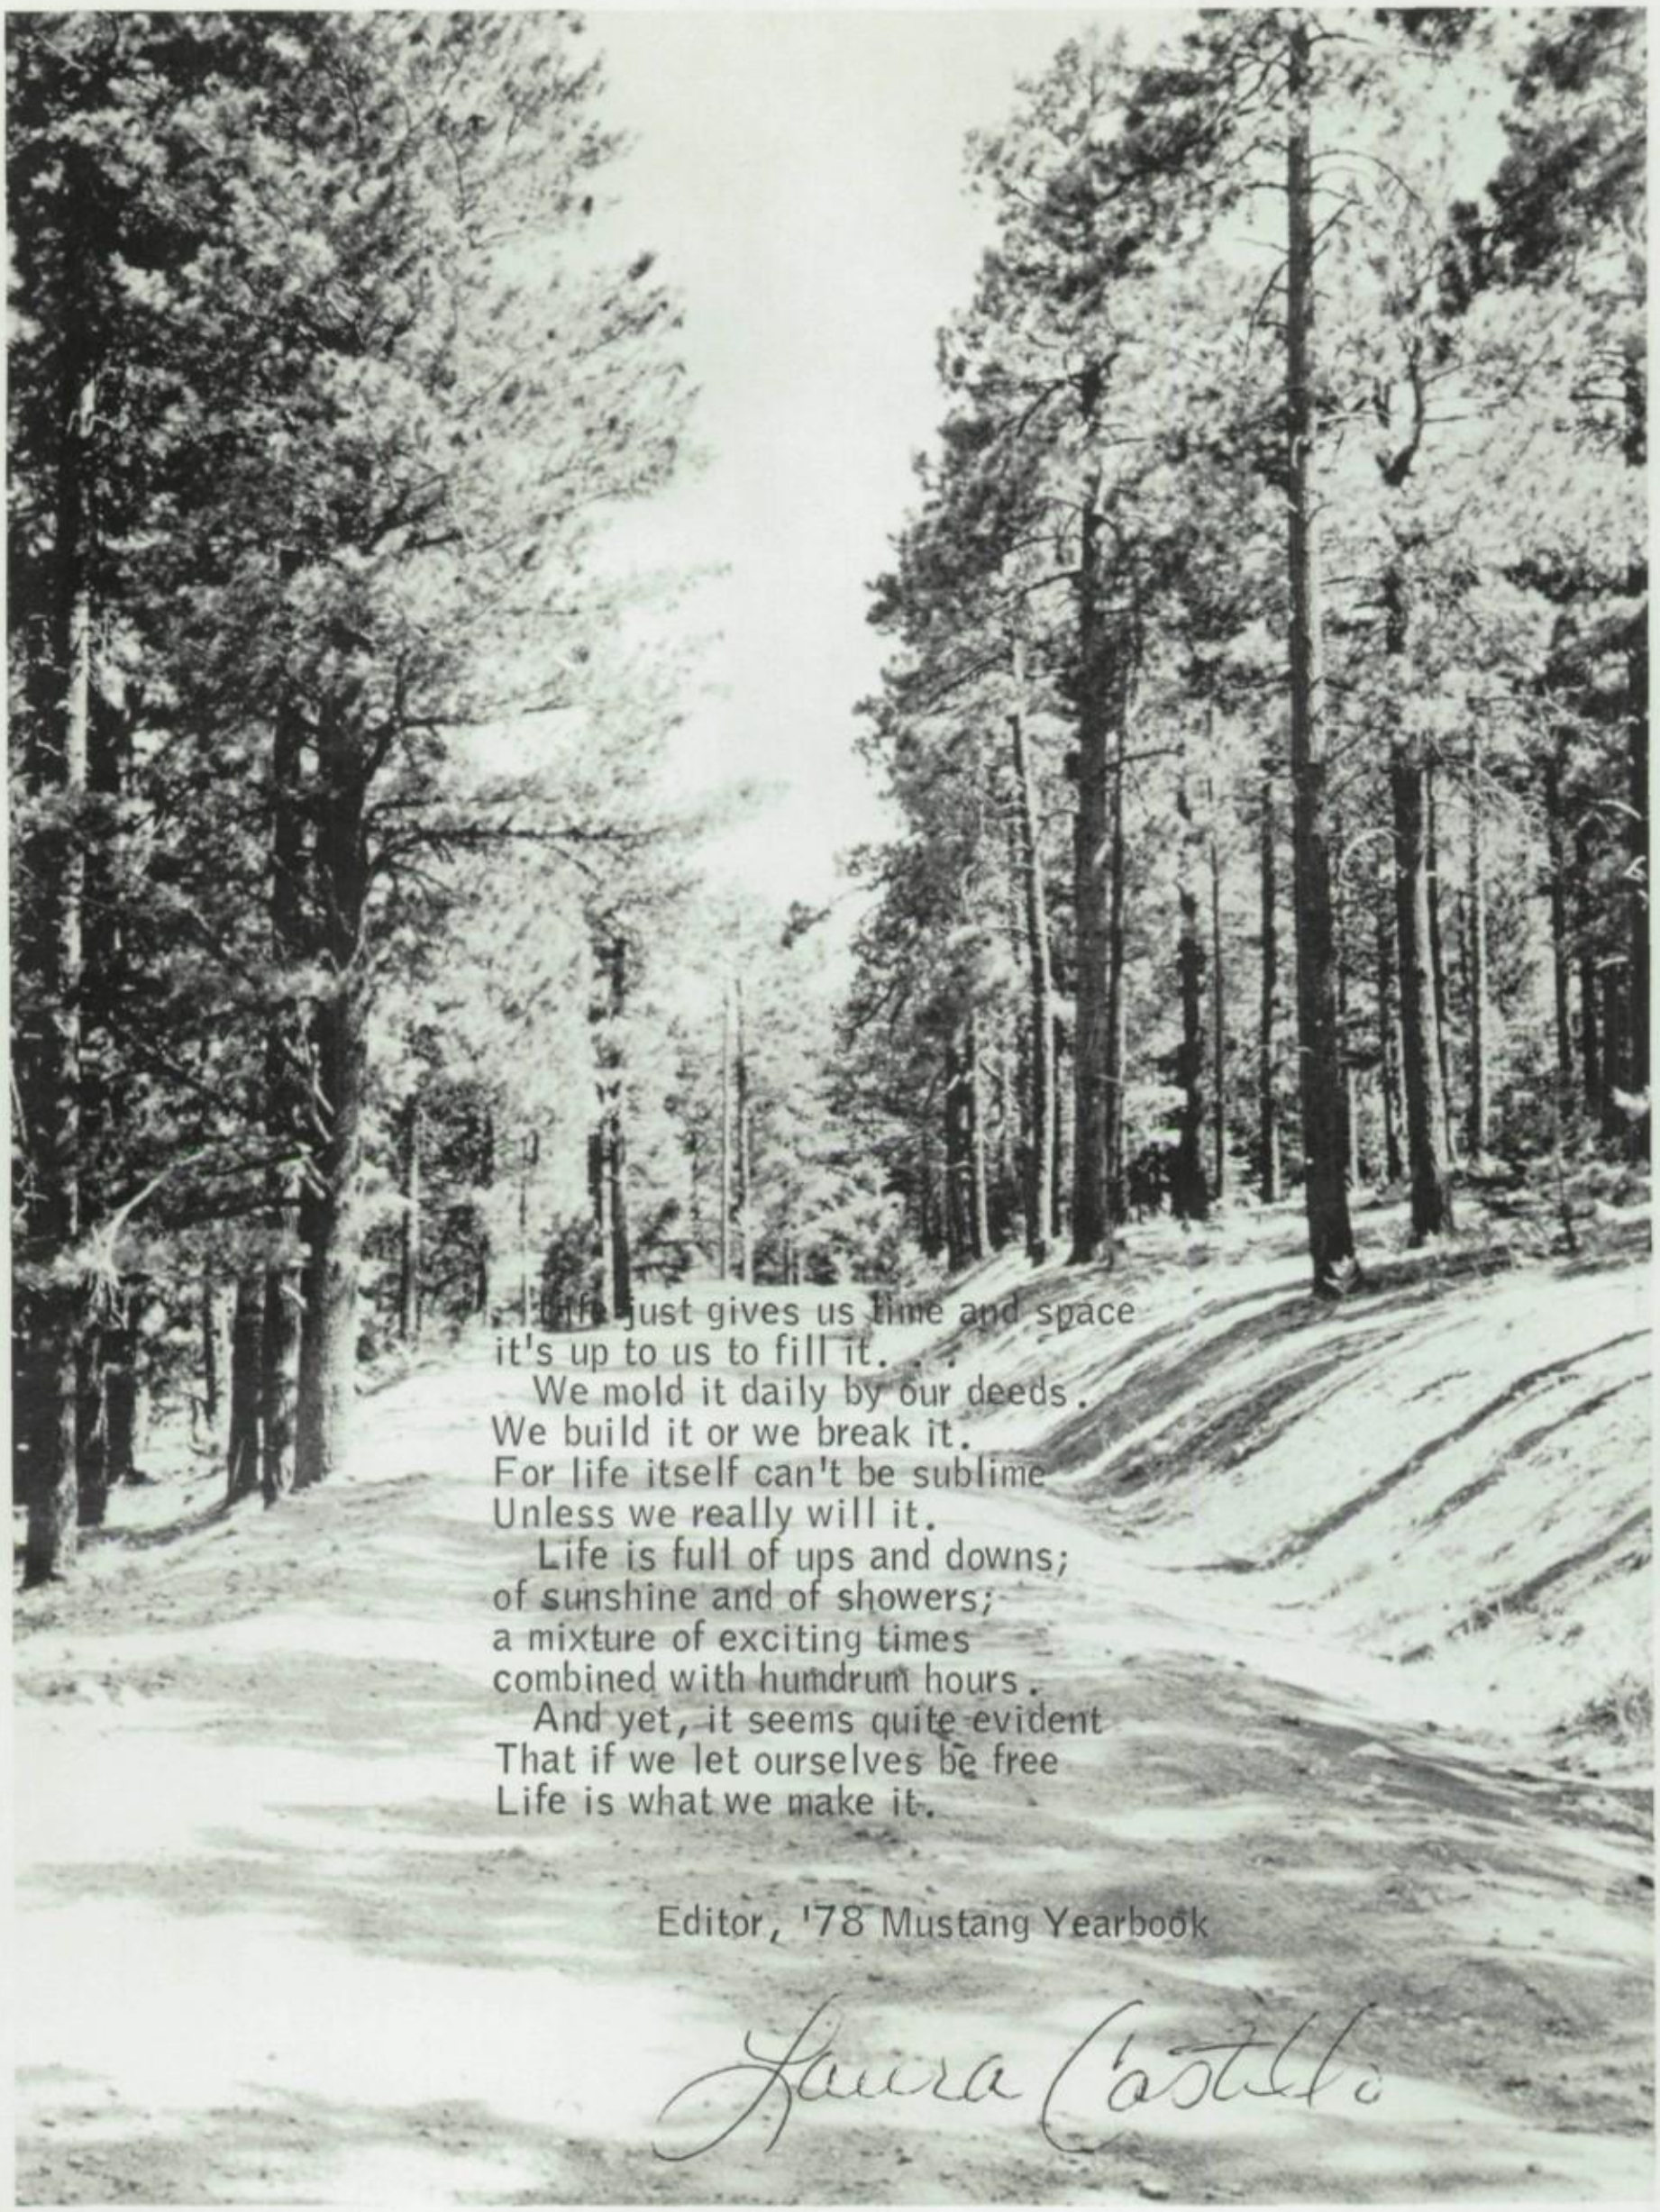
We, the Senior Class of 1978 have chosen to dedicate our Yearbook to you, our parents.

In this small way we wish to say "Thank You" for your sincere understanding and guidance. We deeply appreciate the interest you have shown in us and the many ways you have helped us so that we may be better persons.

Thank you for that extra push, that encouraging word, and unfailing kindness.

We love you very much,
The Senior Class of 1978

Let Yourself Be Free . . .



Life just gives us time and space
it's up to us to fill it. . .
We mold it daily by our deeds.
We build it or we break it.
For life itself can't be sublime
Unless we really will it.
Life is full of ups and downs;
of sunshine and of showers;
a mixture of exciting times
combined with humdrum hours.
And yet, it seems quite evident
That if we let ourselves be free
Life is what we make it.

The year started off with the sponsoring of Homecoming, then they started the busy task of Senior portraits and the ordering of graduation announcements.

Many Seniors have also been busy filling out applications for jobs, colleges and scholarships.

Now starts the planning of graduation, the big night which everyone waits for, and then off to Disneyland for one more good time with the whole class. After that the years of high school are over.

Would You Believe?

What If?

Sophmore Grafiti Board

As he walks up & takes me by the hand, I get all flushed cause he's my man. As I stand beside him I feel so proud, Because of him I wear a crown. And as he kisses me goodbye.

Class of 90

and starts to walk away, I feel like taking him with me far far away. Where do you ask me now. To some place where the sea shells can be found. We'd lay on our backs and kiss all night till we were sound. Who is this fantastic guy. some one asks me with a sye. He's my man and I'm his gal so stay away my little pal.

Count Your Treasures

Count your garden by the flowers,
Never by the leaves that fall.
Count your day by golden hours.
Don't remember clouds at all.

Count your nights by stars, not shadows,
Count your life by smiles, not tears,
And with joy on your GRADUATION
Count your age by friends--not years.

COOPERATIVES—
They're What's Happening

Co-ops are really in style these days. Very possibly a group may be starting up a cooperative right this minute to obtain goods and services to help them live better, more economically.

To some 50 million consumer-members of the nation's 40 thousand cooperatives, this new-old way of doing business is the way to go. Cooperatives have been successful business enterprises for more than a century.

Cooperatives meet many people's needs efficiently and thriftily. They market and purchase farm products and supplies, lend money, help people save money, provide health care, legal aid, electric and telephone service. There are food and furniture cooperatives, housing, student and nursery school co-ops, cooperative insurance companies, credit unions, funeral societies, TV and auto repair shops.

There's probably a co-op or two or three in your life, whether you're a member or not. They're good for you!
